CEO Comments

"Our fourth quarter operating results exceeded our expectations, driven by a strong sequential recovery in both gross margin and adjusted EBITDA margin amid channel inventory recalibration," said Bryan Fairbanks, President and CEO. "Our underlying consumer demand remained steady, reflecting the strength of the Trex brand, our comprehensive product line designed for today's living spaces and lifestyles, and the resilience of the outdoor living category. With long-standing relationships with best-in-class channel partners, Trex is the most widely available and purchased composite brand in North America and around the world. In recent months, we expanded our distribution network in Texas, Oklahoma and other southern states enabling us to better service many of the fastest growing markets in the U.S.

"Driving the sequential margin improvement was the full quarter benefit from the measures we took early in the third quarter to better align our cost structure with demand by decreasing production levels, right sizing our employee base, and focusing on cost efficiency programs. Further improvements are expected as we move through 2023 with the ongoing implementation of continuous improvement programs that will provide margin expansion opportunities.

"On December 30, 2022, we completed the sale of the Trex Commercial Products subsidiary and reportable segment. The divestiture reflects our decision to focus on driving the most profitable growth strategy for the Company and its shareholders through the execution of our outdoor living strategy. With the sale complete, we will dedicate all our resources to accelerating conversion to composites from wood and further strengthening our industry leadership position.

"Our confidence in the performance of our people, products, and distribution is demonstrated by our aggressive share buyback program. In the fourth quarter, we returned approximately $50 million to shareholders through the repurchase of 1.2 million shares of our outstanding common stock," said Fairbanks.

Fourth Quarter 2022 Results

Fourth quarter 2022 consolidated net sales were $192 million, compared to $304 million in the prior-year quarter. Trex Residential net sales were $181 million compared to $288 million in the 2021 fourth quarter. Trex Commercial contributed $11 million to consolidated net sales.

The divestiture of Trex Commercial resulted in a $15.4 million non-cash loss. Selling, general and administrative expenses were $35.4 million, or 18.5% of net sales, in the fourth quarter. This compares to selling, general, and administrative expenses of $36.7 million, or 12.1% of net sales, in the 2021 fourth quarter. Excluding $4.3 million of other expenses related to the sale of Trex Commercial and non-executive retention compensation, selling, general and administrative expenses were $31.2 million, or 16.2% of net sales.

Net income for the fourth quarter 2022 was $10 million, or $0.09 per diluted share, compared to $25 million, or $0.22 per diluted share, in the year ago quarter. Excluding the loss on sale and other expenses related to the divestiture of Trex Commercial, and non-executive retention compensation, adjusted net income was $25 million, or $0.23 per diluted share. Adjusted EBITDA was $46 million, or 24.1% of net sales.

Full year 2022 net income was $185 million, or $1.65 per diluted share, compared to $209 million, or $1.80 per diluted share, in 2021. Summary and Outlook

"With channel inventory recalibration completed by year-end 2022, we began 2023 strategically focused on our residential business, where we intend to drive accelerated wood conversion, reinforce our market leadership position, and continue to educate customers on the many advantages of the full range of Trex sustainable, high-performance, low-maintenance outdoor living products. To support these initiatives, we will continue to invest in the Trex brand and commercialize new products that broaden our market opportunity.

"Innovation remains a key competitive advantage for Trex. We recently announced the regional launch of our premium Trex Signature[®] decking product, which raises the bar for beauty, performance and sustainability with a whole new level of realism for wood plastic composite decking and is complemented by the full range of Trex Signature railing. We also doubled the number of color options available for our recently launched Trex Transcend[®] LineageTM product line, which incorporates heat-mitigating technology. In addition, we introduced a tiered warranty structure for Trex decking that underscores the value of our good/better/best decking lineup. Our line-up for 2023 offers products at every price point designed to resonate with consumers seeking to optimize their outdoor living experience.

"Trex innovation also extends to our sourcing efforts. Through the NexTrex® Retail Recycling Program, companies such as Rent the Runway, LL Bean and Urban Outfitters have found a solution to transform their single-use plastic waste into beautiful and sustainable Trex® decking and outdoor products.

"With the highest production efficiency in the composite industry and a product portfolio with broad-based consumer appeal, Trex is positioned to effectively navigate uncertain economic conditions and emerge as an even stronger company. We anticipate first quarter 2023 net sales to be in the range of $230 million to $240 million.

"We expect full year 2023 EBITDA margin to be in the 26% to 27% range. In the first two months of the 2023 first quarter, our plants were building to an annual revenue rate of one billion dollars. However, if demand is different than expected, we have the ability to quickly flex our production level. Capital expenditures for 2023 are anticipated to be in the $130 million to $140 million range, primarily related to the modular build out of our Arkansas facility calibrated to demand trends," Fairbanks concluded.

Use of Non-GAAP Measures

The Company reports its financial results in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP). To supplement our consolidated financial statements reported on a GAAP basis, we provide the following non-GAAP financial measures of adjusted net income and adjusted diluted earnings per share, earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) and EBITDA as a percentage of net sales, EBITDA margin, and adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margin. Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide investors with additional meaningful financial information that should be considered when assessing our underlying business performance and trends. Further, management believes these non-GAAP financial measures also enhance investors' ability to compare period-to-period financial results. Non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as an alternative for, the Company's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP and are not meant to be considered superior to or a substitute for our GAAP results. Our non-GAAP financial measures do not represent a comprehensive basis of accounting. Therefore, our non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. Reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to GAAP information are included below. Management uses these non-GAAP financial measures in making financial, operating, compensation and planning decisions and in evaluating the company's performance. Disclosing these non-GAAP financial measures allows investors and management to view our operating results excluding the impact of items that are not reflective of the underlying operating performance.
